

Privacy Statement (data protection)

Personal Information

When you register with i-tab online we require an email address and contact information so that your user account can be set up to allow downloads to your i-tab unit from our website. All personal information is protected by local and national data protection and privacy laws. By disclosing your personal information and using i-tabs online Web Systems, you consent to the collection, storage, disclosure, processing, use and transfer of your personal information where necessary and if required by i-tab Online, our data processors, our payment processors, financial institutions or fraud-risk management authorities.

We will also use the information you provide for the following purposes:

1. To send updates regarding the status of your orders
2. To send you newsletters and details of offers and promotions which you have requested.
3. To improve the content, design and layout of our website and to facilitate knowledge management

We will not disclose your Personal Data to third parties unless you have consented to this disclosure or unless the third party is required to fulfil your order (in such circumstances, the third party is bound by similar data protection requirements. We will disclose your Personal Data if we believe in good faith that we are required to disclose it in order to comply with any applicable law, a summons, a search warrant, a court or regulatory order, or other statutory requirement.

Please note that you may change your communications preferences at any time via the 'my account' section of our website.

Accessibility

Please note that some areas of the website require registration before you may access them. These pages will prompt you to register before proceeding.

Security

i-tab.com uses Secured Servers to process your payments and firewalled servers and other security measures to ensure the safety of your personal information.

Deletion of your Personal Data

We are unable to delete your i-tab Online account information containing your personal information for a period of 7 years from the date of your last interaction with us (this could be a sales transaction, a return, or some other interaction with i-tab Online via our Customer Services team or our online tools). This is because we may need to access historical information for business reporting and accounting purposes. Please note however, that at any point in time you may opt in or out of marketing communications via the 'your account' section of this website.

i-tab.com reserves the right to alter or amend its data protection and privacy statement from time to time in its sole discretion.

Questions

If you have any questions about this privacy policy, or the use of your personal information, or if you wish to request us to stop using your information in any way, please email: dataprotection@i-tab.com
